

Non-Governmental Organisations

Meeting your needs

Introduction

At Crowe, we recognise that working in demanding environments, NGOs must be able to react rapidly whilst remaining accountable to funders and other stakeholders. NGOs need to work with specialists who are forward-looking, understand the operating environment and provide reliable assurance worldwide.

As a major accountancy and advisory firm and the top provider of audit and related services to we are able to deploy an array of specialists within the firm to provide practical cost effective assistance to our clients

Our uniqueness

The unique features of Crowe Zimbabwe, which make us uniquely suited to providing professional services to NGOs are:

- A coordinated approach from specialists from Crowe Zimbabwe and other network firms, working as one to capitalise on synergies, provide easy lines of communication, and on sharing expertise;
- A holistic service delivering fresh insights.
- An efficient, cost-effective, and proactive audit service which is Partner-led and provides for regular communication at all levels.
- Access to other related services and excellent tools and resources.
- A professional and pragmatic client-focused approach from a team that places a strong emphasis on first-class service provision through the development of close working relationships.
- Access to our unparalleled expertise in the social enterprise, charity, and the INGO sector.
- An approach that will actively seek to support your strategic objectives, meet your operational imperatives and assist you to meet future challenges.

- High-quality deliverables providing practical recommendations and real added value; and
- Independent advice on best practices.

Our services

- Audit, assurance and compliance
- Governance and risk management
- Support in discussions with regulators and funders
- Due diligence and safeguarding reviews
- Tax services and support
- Performance measurement
- Strategic planning, monitoring, effectiveness and quality reviews
- Internal audit services and support
- IT planning and implementation
- Financial management, budgetary control, and feasibility studies
- Legislative requirements, structuring, and advice to board
- Outsourcing support
- Grant management
- NGO administration
- Trainings and workshops
- Tax planning and compliance
- Operational effectiveness

Conclusion

We trust that you will find the above information useful when choosing the next auditor for your projects and institution.

Should you require either more information or clarity about ourselves, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Assuring you of our best service at all times.

Contacts

Albert Tirivangani - Partner
Email: albert.tirivangani@crowe.co.zw
Cell:+263 719 869 734

7 Avon Rise, Avondale. Harare
Tel: 0242 300135/8
www.crowe.co.zw